HELPING INDIVIDUALS & COMMUNITIES MOVE FROM WHERE THEY ARE TO WHERE THEY WANT TO BE

Mike Anderson

Mike Anderson was born in Stuttgart, Germany on February 4, 1972. He was raised in Fayetteville, NC by William and Hanna Anderson. After experiencing extreme dysfunctionality and domestic violence while growing up in his teen years, he began to explore street life in many aspects and gave up on his dream of becoming a Hip-Hop artist. His poor choices then led to criminal charges that landed him a life sentence in prison. Mike turned his life around while serving his time and accomplished several goals during a 17 year stay on the inside. Penning 12 books and several screenplays, obtaining an A.A.S. degree in Business Administration, and serving as a Think Smart counselor are just a few of the accomplishments.

Now only after a little over a year after being released, Mike has already served as a radio show host (Shairis Poetic radio show-WXDU, 88.7fm), is the poet in resident for Chuck Davis's AADE, and has a self published book in print entitled THE LOST DISCIPLE (Lulu.com).

Mike accredits all this to the grace and mercy of the Most High, his Heavenly Father, God almighty. Living for Christ is his greatest objective.

Mike is currently working on a film project but speaks to at risk youth in the Durham and surrounding areas.
