With locations in the Triangle*, Piedmont, and Charlotte, Summit House empowers convicted mothers to break the multi-generational cycle of poverty, violence, and substance abuse that is their history, and to create a new life for themselves and their children. Summit House strives to keep families together by maximizing healthy bonding between mothers and children. The organization is committed to working with women who have the desire and dedication to change their lives through counseling, life and job skills training, and substance-abuse counseling, rather than sit out a prison sentence

We have a camp for children who have a parent in prison (Camp Angel Tree). We have a youthful offender retreat in the summer. We also have an annual Women's Prison Retreat where inmates and volunteers gather for Bible Study, Worship, Crafts, Recreation, Swimming, Devotions, and a Fashion Show and Talent Show. Many of the volunteers continue to correspond with inmates that come to the retreat after it ends. Also, some of our volunteers are now former inmates. We try to connect women in prison to North Carolina churches in the community when they are released.
