HELPING INDIVIDUALS & COMMUNITIES MOVE FROM WHERE THEY ARE TO WHERE THEY WANT TO BE

Dennis Gaddy is the Executive Director of Community Success Initiative (CSI) a non-profit corporation with a vision to create communities where people discover their potential, set worthy goals for their lives, and take action in a positive way, with an emphasis on men and women who are transitioning from prison and jail, or who otherwise find themselves entangled in the criminal justice system. Dennis places special emphasis in the areas of goal-setting, developing and maintaining a pleasing personality and a positive mental attitude, time management skills, and keys to optimum vision and leadership. Dennis Gaddy's personal mission is to help others to be their best, and for the last 20 years, he has refined his skills, leading him into the field of success coaching, training, and consulting people, regardless of their chosen field of endeavor, or socio-economic status.

A graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill and the Campbell University School of Law, Dennis had a 20 year sales career. However, due to some poor financial decisions he experienced the pain of bankruptcy, the loss of his law license, and prison. Dennis was incarcerated for five years, eight months in the NC Department of Corrections.

Rather than being overcome by either success or failure, Dennis studied both, and learned valuable and positive insights from the past. He learned the value of using the past as a place of reference, but not residence, and designed and teaches a 15-Step leadership course on "How to Get from Where You Are to Where You Want to Be". This leadership course is the foundation he works from when coaching people in personal growth and development.

Along with his duties at CSI, Dennis currently serves as a Member of the North Carolina Lawyers Advocates for Justice Racial and Ethnic Bias Task Force, Member of the NAACP National delegation to United Nations at Geneva Switzerland to highlight the condition of Felony Disenfranchisement in the United States and also serves as the Criminal Justice Chair for the North Carolina NAACP. He also serves on a national reentry subcommittee for the Center for State Government's National Reentry Resource Center, and most recently was recognized with the Goodman Award (Jim Goodman- President, Capital Broadcasting/WRAL Television) for exceptional Leadership by Leadership Triangle. Dennis is also an entrepreneur and is a partner with Gaddy Success Enterprises.

Dennis has been married for 30 years and he and his wife have two daughters.
