HELPING INDIVIDUALS & COMMUNITIES MOVE FROM WHERE THEY ARE TO WHERE THEY WANT TO BE

Janet Taylor, her story, her words.

I had been to jail for the umpteenth time. If the cops hadn't arrested me when they did, I'm certain I'd be dead because my body was almost completely dehydrated, malnourished, and emaciated. I was in jail for the same old thing: prostitution.

It all began with my recreational use of cocaine, the monster from the pit of hell. I started out using it only at parties with "special" friends. However, soon it turned out I liked cocaine more than life itself because of the feeling of euphoria it provided. Soon I was using it secretly and by the time I knew what hit me, I had a full-fledged drug addiction. I had a monster on my back and didn't know how to get it off.

Crack cocaine almost completely destroyed my life. If it had not been for the Lord who was on my side. (Psalm 124:1) I became a born again Christian in 1994. I had a divine encounter with God while in the basement of the Forsyth County Jail, while folding sheets and towels. That encounter radically changed my life, forever. It's been 23 Years since God set me free. Since that time I have been on fire for Jesus, sharing my testimony while preaching the Word of God and traveling the globe telling the world of My Savior and His mighty power. I also wrote the book, Sleeping With The Enemy, 1, 2, 3, and 4 and recorded my very own gospel CD entitled A New Beginning. In 2016, I was completely pardoned by the Honorable Gov. Pat McCrory.
